

SKIPPY SAM UNLEASHED The Year Everything Changed

By David Allen Lawrence

Paperback. Condition: New. 915 pages. Sam and Skippy are pleased to make their entertaining and enchanting story available to young people and adults. They invite you to join them every day of The Year Everything Changed. Young Sam's life was painfully normal and boringly pleasant. He had no idea that after 365 challenging and exciting days he would scarcely recognize himself. Sam had been unaware of his capacity to learn, to lead, and to love. How could he foresee having huge impacts on the lives of people he had not yet met? And Sam always had known that little Skippy was the most irresistible, insightful, and irrepressible dog in the world. Without exactly talking to Sam, Skippy always imparted the simple canine truths embedded in the day's events. But which one of them is really in charge; who is the alpha male? While Skippy takes things in stride, Sam struggles to keep pace with rapidly expanding horizons: maturing toward manhood, resisting academic indoctrination, moving far from his boyhood home, finding (and losing) his first love, and exercising faith. Along the way he overcomes bullies, discovers young grandparents, finds his sister is smart and nice, rocks a talent show, scales mountains, becomes a...
