Taylor Francis Ltd, United Kingdom, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. New.. Language: English . Brand New Book. Train crashes cause, on average, a handful of deaths each year in the UK. Can we justify punishing those who engage in actions that harm only themselves? * What is so bad about crime? What is the point of punishment? Other chapters discuss health care, disability, safety and the free market. Throughout the book, fundamental questions for both philosopher and policy maker recur: what are the best methods for connecting philosophy and public policy? Should thinking about public policy be guided by an ideal world or the world we live in now? If there are knock down arguments in philosophy why are there none in public...
