Shoe Dog is a memoir written by Phil Knight, the founder of Nike. In this book we read how things were prior to Nike becoming what it is today. We are able to see how a man could reach success in seemingly impossible odds. Knight was a runner at his university and he wanted to do something in his life that he truly enjoyed. After graduating, he borrowed fifty dollars from his father in order to start his business. What he did not know is that starting a business is one thing, while succeeding at it is something entirely different. This book presents us with how -humble beginnings- are often roads to success. The main part of this guide is a summary section of the original book. After the summary, we analyze the book and then there is a short quiz. The quiz is used as a supplement to the summary and a test for our readers. The last part is the conclusion. We hope that you will enjoy reading our summary and that you will like the original book just as much as we do. If you are ready, please proceed to the summary section. Here Is A Preview Of What You Will Get: - A summarized version of the book. - You will find the book analyzed to further strengthen your knowledge. - Fun multiple choice quizzes, along with answers to help you learn about the book. Get a copy, and learn everything about Shoe Dog.
