Om Books International, New Delhi. Soft cover. Condition: New. Nine young friends find themselves in a secluded retreat where they are invited by ace storyteller, Areen, to participate in a kind of game he has made out of his fine gift of storytelling. The youngsters relate to the stories personally, and are moved to sharing what they feel about them. In the process, they are reminded of the relationship challenges they have encountered in their own lives and are often also found voicing their disagreement with certain aspects of Areen's stories. Encouraged by him at the end of his stories, they undertake an insightful exploration of their identity, purpose in life, relationships, the values they need to uphold, and everything that makes life more meaningful. Page Extent: 207.
