Brookes Publishing Co, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Bullying prevention starts with helping young children understand and accept diversity-the earlier the better. That's why your school team needs this ready-to-use resource, a simple, fun, and effective way to promote social acceptance in the critical early years of attitude development. Perfect for K-2 classrooms, this book presents the field-tested, research-based Making Friends program, a toolbox of adaptable, practical strategies that fit right into your regular school day. You'll help students respect and accept each other's differences through three methods: 1) reading diversity-themed stories and conducting brief whole-class discussions; 2) forming small learning groups that encourage children from diverse backgrounds to play and interact; and 3) sharing the storybooks you read with families so they can continue discussions at home. Aligned with DEC/NAEYC recommended practices and the English Language Arts Common Core State Standards, this proven program will boost students social and academic skills as you create a welcoming, inclusive, and culturally responsive classroom. Use this Program to: * enrich your existing classroom activities-circle time, class discussion, cooperative play-with important lessons on social acceptance* strengthen students literacy skills while they learn to accept and celebrate differences* support friendships among children of diverse abilities, backgrounds, and family structures* lay the groundwork for bully-free school environments* choose books, toys, and other materials that reflect our diverse world and give young children a sense of belonging* implement a universal design for learning (UDL) approach to address the needs of diverse learners* think on your feet to work lessons on acceptance into small teachable moments and everyday conversations* increase the home-school connection with strategies parents can use with their children* strengthen understanding of how acceptance is developed through reflective activities for teachers and school-wide teams Practical Materials:...
