Robinson, London, UK, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Brand new. A Daisy Dalrymple Mystery. Is a deranged killer stalking Daisy through the woods? Detective Inspector Alec Fletcher's plans to attend his daughter's sports day are thwarted by the discovery of three bodies buried in Epping Forest. Sent to investigate, he and his team are hindered from the start by uncooperative Essex policeman DI Gant, who resents Scotland Yard encroaching on his patch. However, a bigger problem is identifying the victims and finding a common link between them to explain why they were buried so close together, though at intervals of several months. When Alec tells wife Daisy about the case, she's hooked and, with her own bit of digging, uncovers the fact that one of the victims was a colonel. And when the police discover that the two other victims served with the colonel in the Great War, this becomes a tragic case of long-buried secrets.
