Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Most people have dreams, small or large, they have dreams You might wish to travel around the world, seeing ancient and historic sites. Another person may dream of owning a five-bedroom house, with matching furniture, and raising two kids. Your dreams are important to you, but life requires money. Unless you have a steady income, savings, and a budget for how to spend that money, you will have difficulty attaining some of your dreams. You certainly will not be happy if you cannot attain all your goals. It does not matter how old you are. Whether you are just beginning your adult life, saving up for college, or in your 60s, you need to have a budget. You need to know what your expenses are, what your income is, and what you can save to ensure you are able to pay for the bigger ticket items you want. You could also change your desires and wants to live a minimalist lifestyle. True happiness does not come from being a millionaire. Happiness comes from accepting what you have, what you can work...
