Brand New Book. Excerpt from The Agromeck, 1929, Vol. 27 The School of Engineering, therefore. Has incorporated into its curricula numerous subjects of general educational value from other schools of the college. Courses are required in English, Economics, Modern Languages. Etc. There is. Of course. Thorough training in Mathematics. Both pure and applied. The objective of the School is to prepare young men for success in their chosen profession as well as for leadership in all matters of public interest. The School of Engineering is largely and more completely equipped and teaches more students than the combined engineering departments of all other institutions of the State. Our students live and work in an engineering atmosphere and their every daily association is helpful, in that it keeps the prospective engineer in constant touch with those things that pertain to his work. In a word, State College is the center from which go out most of the men trained to supply the engineering industries of the State. The location of the college is...
