

Meat Climate Change: The 2nd Leading Cause of Global Warming (Paperback)

By Dr Moses Seenarine

Xpyr Press, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . An argument for combating climate change through modifying agricultural practices and eating habits. Seenarine (Education and Empowerment Among Dalit (Untouchable) Women in India, 2004) argues for a meatless diet as a key tactic for reducing greenhouse gases, minimizing weather changes, and improving human health. The book provides a dense overview of current climate science and policy, and reviews the impact of rising temperatures on not only the physical environment, but also economics, international relations, and gender politics. The reduction or elimination of meat consumption (referred to here as carnism) is held up as the solution to a thoroughly researched, footnoted argument. Seenarine draws on a variety of research to present a solid case for recognizing meat production as a significant factor in greenhouse-gas emissions. - Kirkus Reviews Meat Climate Change is an essential guidebook on the intersection of climate and diet, and related environmental, social and psychological issues. The book covers a wide range of disciplines, and reviews hundreds of research studies. The good news is that plant-based diets can stop climate chaos! This must-read, essential guidebook show how, and in addition...
