Excerpt from The Efficient Kitchen: Definite Directions for the Planning, Arranging and Equipping of the Modern Labor-Saving Kitchen a Practical Book for the Home-Maker In this Spirit we started on a determined quest for information and new resources. We took lessons in cooking to see whether the Domestic Science schools had any wonderful wisdom to impart in the direction of better food for less money. We studied courses in Home Economics. We read books. We visited cooking laboratories and practice houses. Finally we came to the Housekeeping Experiment Station at Darien, Conn. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at This book is a reproduction of an important historical work.
